“ I was shocked to read of Larry's passing. We were in several classes together at U of M Flint. He was such a nice person.

“ Larry was a very inspiring man. I loved to listen to him debate issues in class. He often had the point of view that nobody thought of, until he said it. Or, he would say what everyone else was thinking, but was trying to be too politically correct to say. I admired that about Larry, his ability to put the issue out there and open up a discussion. Larry was serious about being a student, and a Social Worker. The social work community is better for Larry having been a part of it. He will be missed. He is loved.

“ Jean, Barbara, Tony, Grandma Marchel, and the rest of our family. Please be encouraged. Larry was so very determined and an inspiration to the young and old members of our family. We can keep his memories alive by just telling the future generations how much he accomplished in a short period of time.

Sincerely Your Daughter, and Cousin

“ Larry was an inspiration to all the lives that he touched. I am proud to call him friend. His capacity to provide loving support and compassion while getting to the bottom of an issue was amazing. His support throughout our time together at UofM-Flint will be with me always. I will remember fondly the many debates and social analyzations that when on daily with Mr. Woodberry. Larry was a powerful Social Worker and a deiligent student and loving, supportive Father. He will be missed dearly, but he will always remain a part of the Class of 2006. May the breath of the Holy Spirit carry you to our loving Fathers arms....Always~

“ It is deepest sorrow that I write this tribute! I am proud to say that Larry was one of my dearest friends. We spent countless hours working on assignments while attending U of M Flint. We discussed our plans and visions for the future. Larry aspired to do great things with his social work credentials.He was also an avid reader and debater of any topic that he felt strong convictions for.Larry was a voice that could not be silenced. His wisdom and knowledge were infinite. Although his passing has left a void in my life, I am sure that he is resting in the loving arms of his savior.

Lovingly remembered and sadly missed by the class of 2006.
