“ So many memories. I'm so thankful to have been a person you held dear. Your kindness, generosity, friendship & love will never be forgotten. I won't forget our last conversation... that doggone giggle... you fussing at me 1 last time, & me doing the same..lol.... always reminding each other of who & Whose we were. Even at your lowest you loved thru it. Loved us all through it. 💜

I'm so glad you're no longer in such agony. I'm just so sad you're gone. It's surreal.

“ My prayers are with the family. A couple of years ago we reconnected and reunited and shared good times together from The Urban League Nulites program. We had plans to work together helping single pregnant mothers at The House of Esther in Flint. She will be greatly missed, she had such a good heart. God bless family during your time of grief.

“ My precious goddaughter. You have always meant the world to us and have been a true daughter since you were 3 years old. I will miss our long-distance talks and visits as often as we could. My two consolations are that you are no longer suffering...and that you are with our Lord, (and your grandparents). Crying because I miss you already but rejoicing because we know life doesn't really end here (I Thess. 4:13)...God's got you now!

(I'm posting this green candle but you know I'm really saying 'Go Blue')
