“ Thank You for taking care of my granny and making her feel alive when yall was roommates. Yall kept each other alive from day 1. My granny didnt care to talk or do anything and you helped her and made her do so because it was in her best interest to do so.. When she passed I know it killed yu inside then. I hate to find out u have met her in heaven. My mom just called and checked on you. You was such a wonderful person. You & my granny was the best of friends. Yall was sooo funny with yall cursing and saying to each other you better stop cursing now lmao. We had awesome times together.

“ Condolences to the family. Lavonda shared her room with my mom, Laura Watson. She adopted my mom as her granny. They shared some memorable days together. Now they are in heaven together. My heart is heavy. Her birthday is the same day as my brother. They had a special bond also.
