“ To The Family...

I was so shocked and so very sorry to hear that Monk had passed. Be confident in knowing that this is not the end, but the start of an eternal journey. I will continue to lift you up in prayer during this difficult time.

Brenda (Wesley) Kimble - October 27, 2007 at 12:00 AM

“ Our prayers are with the entire Collins family. May God give the family strength at this critical time." Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all ways acknowledge him and he shall direct thy path." Proverbs 3:5,6

“ Dear Family, I know the sorrow that you are going through right now. As I and my family have not too long ago went through the same pain.I wish I could say that it gets better.But it does not .It comes and goes. But you have five stages of grief we must go through. And how fast you go thur them is up to each one of you.I will say this, do not let anyone tell you how long to grieve. Each one go thur the grieving process differently.In the Bible at John 5:24, 25 . Jesus states that he will call all from the grave.Revelation 21:1-4 tells us about a new heavens and a new earth where death will be no more.Verse 5 tell John the writer "to write because these words are faithful and true" this is a promise.Death hurts so bad because it is not natural.Death came on the scene after Adam and Eve sinned in the Garden.It was not in God's orginal plans.In the Book of Genesis.There was no babness until after they followed Satan the Devil into rebellion.I am very sorrow for your loss.God's plans for the furture will fix it.

“ To Butch and the Collins Family,
It's been along time since Lieth St. and McClellan St. days. Monk was a big brother to all of us younger kids. My condolences to you and your family. love Yall, Sandra
