“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ L.C. is and was my loving and caring brother that showed that through his acts. From my earliest memories of being on a horse drawn wagon with him and riding double on our horse, myself holding on for dear life, as well as hauling hay, hoeing cotton, playing basketball in high school, swimming and fishing; but most of all, when he let me be caretaker of his '65 Mustang car when I was in my early teens as he pursued his dreams. Although flawed in many ways, as we all are, I pray that his sins are forgiven. I feel that the joy of the Lord was always in his heart as he expressed goof cheer in the presence of others. I love him very much and will miss him dearly. May he greet me in Heaven when I get there.
