“ My forever friend. We shared so many laughs hugs over the years. When she laughed you knew it came from her soul because it radiate her love and you could feel it. I thought I would get another chance to hug you and laugh with you at our class reunion but it was time for your reunion with God. Rest my friend. I pray that may your family's pain of losing you heal quickly. May all the love and memories you gave them help dry their tears.
