“ Brother Eddie was a longtime friend, at age 7 or 8 years old we shot marbles together in the Selby Street neighborhood. I know his Soul is prospering in Heaven because He truly loved the Lord as he would teach me “The Good News of Christ “ during our walks through Forest Park. I’m truly going to miss as it was an Honor to have been his Brother in Christ. I’m not saying goodbye, I’m saying “We will meet again”.

“ I remember when I first met Mr. Lee. He would strut with a smile plastered on his face (the kind where he showed his teeth) when he would walk that hallway to see the love of his life. When he cut that corner, his whole face and eyes just light the whole room up when he saw Ms. Doris. That is the kind of love that most of us try to experience. He was always very nice, loving, full of GOD, full of scripture and respectable. Sending love & prayers to the family. 💜🙏
