“ Lee, I will miss you dearly and always have you in my heart. I will always remember us growing up together in the late 70's early 80's before you went to Michigan. I thought you were my brother because you stayed with us for a little while. I will never forget calling you 'Brother John' and how we were potty trained at the same time. You are gone to a better place now and has done your duty here on Earth. So rest yourself now, Brother John!

*Love Always,
Your Cousin Taye*

“ Just thinking about the good times we had when you would come and stay with Sweetmama every summer when school was out. I remember when we (Taye and I) changed your nickname from Little Lee to Brother John. I don't know where we got that name from.

As we got older, we didn't see each other as much, but I did enjoy having a good time (laughing and joking) with you the last time you were here a couple of years ago.

Lee, you were getting weary as the days went by. You suffered greatly. You fought a good fight. You may not have been feeling well, but somehow you managed to build up enough strength to pick up the phone and give us a call so that we could keep in touch.

Lee, I have always been told that the sun will shine bright after the storm is over. Your illness and suffering was your storm. God was making preparations for you in his heavenly home, so that when your storm was over, the sun would shine on you. Not here on earth, but in His Kingdom.

I love you and the memories we shared would not be forgotten. You will be greatly missed.

“ To God be the glory for all that He has done. He gives us life and when it time He comes and get His own.

Toni keep your head held high knowing that God is nigh. I wish peace in the name of Jesus, and know that every tear that you shed for your son now God will soon wipe away.

“ Marcie(Toni),

Just like to take this time and say that you are in my prayers and that God does not make a mistake.

I can't say I know what you are feeling, because I never lost a child.

Remember, there's no problem Jesus cannot feel, there's no pain that He cannot heal, all things work according to the master perfect and holy will no matter what you happen to be going through, God is only using you the Battle is not yours its the Lord.

-Let not your heart be trouble, believe in God believe also in me, because in father"s house are many mansion. We will see him again some day.

Be Blessed, your cousin Lula B.
