“ It was a rare blessing to be able to know brother Lee and share the Living Word together...Mostly I "sat at his feet." Lee lived in the Truth of the Word and was an inspiration to those like myself while a thorn to others who would not receive the Truth of the Word. I appreciate so much the fact that brother Lee walked and lived without unholy alliances...what does that mean except he'd not compromise the Word of God...and to that one I say Hallelujah!

When James through the Holy Spirit began to write the book of James, he refers to himself as James the servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. Looking for no self glory and all its implications, James kept it simple...James the servant of the Lord Jesus Christ. The same can be said for my brother Lee, Lee the servant of the Lord Jesus Christ and he will now forever reign and rule with His Lord and Master, Jesus Christ. When the Spirit of God drew Lee to the Heavenly Father and extended an invitation to receive Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, Lees response was an eternal yes and he didn't stutter. To that one I say Hallelujah! to the Lamb, the Lamb Who was slain from the foundation of the world. This same invitation is extended to all who will come to the Heavenly Father in truth, a broken and contrite spirit, a repentant spirit, confessing your sin and receiving Jesus Christ as Lord. Why would I not exchange death for life in Christ...eternal life in Jesus is offered to whosoever will...God bless you and thank You Precious Jesus for Your servant and my brother Lee Moutry.
