“ To the Thompson Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious gift of life to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*

“ Uncle Lee,

You had the biggest heart! You always had time to listen and you always had the best advise on life. Like all of your brothers and sisters, if you could help you would be there! And you always had a joke and a smile for ya! You showed that no matter how old you might be you can always better yourself and go after your dreams.

Thank you for being the BEST uncle! You, your sister and brothers and my dad being one of your siblings, may have begun from meager beginnings, but all of you taught us kids to work hard and never give up!

Love and will miss you Uncle!

“ Lee Thompson was my Grandad. Full of Wisdom and extremely fun. I remember him taking my cousin and I to work with him cutting grass on hot summer days and teaching us how to be men. Afterwards he would reward us with Root Beer Floats (which were really his favorite). I will miss my Grandad and I love him dearly.

“ Lee was my brother in law...he and his brother were very quiet people..he loved his family. He always called/text to check on me and my daughter after his brother transition. He was a very loving person in his own quiet way. My heart is breaking. I will miss him so much. RIP...you are now home with family! Love always, Your sis-in-law..Mary

“ You never forget the people who encouraged you along the way. When I announced, in 2003, to our Bible Study group at Flint Metal Fab that I was going into the ministry of preaching, Brother Lee told me "that's gone be alright!" Rest well Deacon Thompson. The world has lost a humble warrior for righteousness, and Heaven has gained one of God's Generals.

“ Deacon Lee Thompson was such a faithful and dedicated worker at Jackson Memorial Temple COGIC. His faithfulness in opening up Sunday School every Sunday with prayer and a scripture will be sorely missed. He was a man who loved God. We're going to miss him so much but if we live right, we'll see him in glory! Rest in Heaven Deacon!

“ Lee P Thompson was my father, he was the best dad anyone could ask for. He taught us how to cook (game) and pastries. My father took us to the zoo and played baseball with us, we also learned a lot of life lessons, thou shalt not lie, steal or covet. We knew he loved us, we loved him too. He also taught us how to be a servant of our neighbors and loved ones, that was something he enjoyed. Thank you you dad for teaching me so I could be the best me possible. I love you so much and will miss you even more
