LeeGree confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized at Charity Missionary Baptist Church in Crawford, Mississippi. He later continued his dedication at Antioch Baptist Church for over 40 years. "Gree" as he was affectionately known, moved to South Bend, Indiana and was united in Holy matrimony to Gladys Robinson. They relocated to Flint, Michigan in 1955. LeeGree loved his family and spent every summer near, until he was unable, in his hometown of Crawford, MS. He loved a good football and basketball game.

Lee could be found every Sunday in his favorite recliner, remote in hand watching each competition. LeeGree had a vivacious and unique personality. He kept you laughing with his funny remarks and sly comebacks, most which were often unrepeatable for those of you who knew him well. A great source of pleasure for him was taking care of his home and his second love "HIS Lawn." He was known to hold a friendly competition with the other men of Colonial Dr. Every summer it was a race to see who had the greenest lawn and the prettiest flowers. Of course, he always came out on top. LeeGree completed his assignment April 1, 2022 in Atlanta, Georgia.
