Mrs. Leola "Doll" Andrews passed away on July 20, 2018 at her residence in Mt. Morris, Michigan. Doll was born April 16, 1932 to Mr. & Mrs. Eddie Sr. and Sarah Speights. She was raised in Emelle, Alabama and later graduated from North Sumter High School in Panola, Alabama. Doll accepted Christ at an early age at Sunny Mount Giles in Kemper County, MS. Doll was united in marriage to Jack Andrews on August 8, 1953 and later moved to Flint, Michigan. To this union three children were born: two daughters, Vinita "Pam" and Donna "Nici" Jean; and son, Eric Darrell. She joined Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church on Hickory Street. She always remained a faithful member of Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church and was active in the Floral Club until her health declined. Doll retired from General Motors V-8 Engine (General Motors Flint South Engine) with over 33 years of service. She was a member of UAW Local #659 and formerly employed at Flint Osteopathic Hospital (FOH). Doll also attended Mott Community College for several semesters. Doll enjoyed traveling with her husband and her grandchildren, Ki Yante' "Tay" and Shekira "Kira". Doll also enjoyed eating butter pecan ice-cream while watching basketball. She was a good cook and an excellent baker. She could bake a German Chocolate Cake, Coconut Cake, Red Velvet Cake and Pound Cake which were out of this world. She passed on her baking talent to her granddaughter Kira. Doll also made delicious sweet potatoes pies and the best homemade ice-cream in the city of Flint. When she was not watching basketball or baking, she loved to crochet and to take care of her plants and flowers. She indeed had a "green thumb".

Mrs. Leola "Doll" Andrews leaves in God's care: beloved husband, Jack Andrews of Mt. Morris, MI; two daughters, Vinita (Franklin) Evans and Donna Andrews (and friend Calvin Sims); beloved grandson, Ki Yante' Andrews; beloved granddaughter, Shekira (Demetrius) Williams; sister, Eula Boone; two brothers, Lee Curtis (Luevenia) Speights and Curtis Lee (Marvalene) Speights, all of Flint; a host of nieces and nephews; brother-in-law, Abron (Connie) Andrews Sr. of Burton, MI; three sisters-in-law, Inez Andrews and Johnnie Mae Murphy, both of Flint and Carlivear Spates of Scooba, MS; special nieces, Laura Hood and Brenda Stewart; and friend, Patricia Luckett who never missed sending special occasion cards.

Mrs. Andrews was preceded in death by her son, Eric Andrews; parents, Eddie Sr. and Sarah Speights; sister, Beatrice Thompson; three brothers, Thomas James Speights, Eddie Speights Jr. and Ezekiel Speights.

The family would like to give special thanks to Dr. Jitendra Katneni and staff, Genevieve "Gennie" Cintron her caregiver, sister, Eula and brothers, Curtis Lee and Lee Curtis for the loving care they gave and special neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Moore who were always there when needed.
