“ It was a blessing to re- connect with Uncle Leonard at Briarwood after so many years when we would visit Briarwood every third Saturday of the month for nursing home ministry. He would sing hymns along with us and I would ask him if he remembered those songs from St Mary's AME Church in Greensboro, AL and He would say, yeah, yeah I remember. He had not changed. He still had a big loving heart and a big smile. RIP Uncle Leonard.

Love, Gwinda Jefferson

“ I'm gonna miss "Grandpaw." We always talked about cooking, and he always had an excuse, as to why it wasn't done. I would tell him, I'll make the cornbread, & I'd ask, did you cook the greens? His response, I left them on the stove, and they spoiled. He had answer for everything. Now, it's your time to rest. Love you
