“ I wish I would have got to know Mr. Banks. I have heard so many stories about him. What I do know is Mr. Banks was a very hard worker and was a great husband and father. I know he loved westerns and watched them everyday. I could tell just by talking to him, that he was a very kind man❤️I thought it was so sweet that he called his daughter Barbara “Sprue” I probably spelled it wrong. His children loved him very much and he was taken care of with all the love his children had❤️I look forward to meeting him in the New World Rev.21:3,4. My condolences are for all the family and friends and also my prayers. I send my love to all the family and friends.
