“ Sending prayers and heartfelt condolences to the entire Fleming family. Leroy was a kind, and caring young man an that's why my cousin Marjorie married him, and know they're back together in JESUS arms. Take your rest cousin Leroy. For our earthly house has dissolved, but we have a building of God. A house not made with hands, but eternal in the heavens.

“ It is with great sadness that we consider the loss of Leroy. He was always such a loving, giving and expressive person. Always ready to share a joke, tell a story or just find some way to make you laugh. His love for family was beautifully sincere. His love for music was such a delightful thing to experience and his conversations kept you mesmerized. We will miss his unique personality with the facial expressions that only he could deliver. We are so very thankful for the time we spent with him last year. Those memories we will cherish forever...Pop Fleming has gone on to better place where sorrow doesn't exist, worries are no more and where Joy and Love permeate the entire expanse. So long Brother Leroy.
