“ Saddened to find this here. I was wondering if Mr Lee (as I called him) was okay as I hadn't seen him on his morning walks. I don't think he ever met a stranger. A Very kind and pleasant man, I will miss his conversations. My condolences to the family.

“ Prayers to the family and close friends of Mr. Gamble. Mr Gamble helped me become the golfer I am today. Always telling me to keep my arm locked tight!!! He would take us to Kearsley Park behind the golf course to hit golf balls in an open field. Best golf lessons ever. He was a life saver in more ways than one. Thank you Mr. Gamble

“ Our thoughts an prays are with the family of MR. Gamble. We lived on the same street. He was such a nice man, who was always giving compliments and words of encouragements to everyone he met. He and I played basketball at Scott school and he was a real baller. He always talked about growing up with Dick Barnett in Gary Indiana, and how he broke his scoring record. He will surely be missed, not only by the ones on his street, but by the entire neighborhood. RIP.....

“ It breaks our hearts to hear of Mr. G's (as we called him) homegoing. We were his neighbors first on Lynn St and then on Providence St.. He was a great inspiration to us and we will greatly miss talking with him and seeing him walk through the neighborhood. He often stopped by and shared kind and inspiring stories of his life. Rest In Peace Mr. G.

“ My mother Mirtha Hampton Taylor, Uncle Roy's eldest sister who precede him in death in 2019 at age 93 was his greatest fan. She never missed one of his basketball games when he was a star player at Froebel High School in Gary, IN. She used to regal her daughters over the years with her favorite Roy stories. One of which was that her held and may still hold the highest points scored by a single player in one game by a single player in Northwest Indiana. Another was of how during a game he was taken .out and benched and the crowd was having none of it and made such an uproar chanting his name until they put him back in the game.
