“ Dear Louise and Lever Family. It was a blessing to attend the home going celebration for Leroy. The service was full of joy and grace, a little sadness at times, but the Lord stepped in and calmed the sadness with His hand of perfect peace as only He can. I believe God and Leroy were pleased. Take care, and much love to the entire Lever Family.

“ My deepest condolences & most sincere prayers to the family. Uncle LeRoy is loved & will truly be missed. He was a remarkable man of God. Uncle LeRoy instilled in us good values, punch line jokes that would make you laugh to tears, but most importantly he taught us sound financial literacy as kids. May God bless your family & we thank God for you! Rest in Heaven!

“ This has been quite a shock to hear and I am still trying to process it even now. This saddens me because he was such a genuine person who instantly put you at ease and made you feel at home no matter where you saw him, kind of like being a part of the family. I've known him for many years because he was my childhood friend Louise's special love from high school years thru college and later to matrimony. A special lasting love. Louise, Lazerick, LaCretia, grandchildren and family I know he'll be missed greatly by all. Cry because I know it hurts but treasure the many memories that live in your heart. Those remembrances will help you through. Prayers to all of the Levers and Bell families. Love you. 🙏❤️
