Mr. Lester Lee. Williams was born March 4, 1948 in Clarksdale, MS. The son of Haywood and Irene (Johnson) Williams. He was a jack of all trades. He enjoyed cooking, playing 'Tonk", gardening, fixing things and spending time with his family. Lester lived in Chicago for a period of time and later moved to Flint, MI with the love of his life, Barbara Moore of 39 ½ years.

Before departing us he accepted the Lord Jesus Christ as his personal savior. He was a very generous man. Lester would feed you if you were hungry and shelter you if you had nowhere to live. He didn't bite his tongue for anyone. His favorite quote was "He would break a brick, cripple a stick, and put a crow bar in the hospital quick".

He leaves to cherish his memory: wife, Barbara Moore; daughters, Leslie Moore, Teressa Moore both of Flint, MI, Taleesha Moore of San Antonio, TX, Arleesha Moore of Radcliff, KY; son, Lester Jr. of Flint, MI; 16 grandchildren; 4 great-grandchildren; sisters, Pearline Watts and Oradine Cooper; aunt, Marjorie Johnson of Indianapolis, IN; as well as a host of other friends and family.

Mr. Williams is preceded in death by parents, Haywood and Irene (Johnson) Williams; sisters, Daisy, Mernerva, Eddie Mae, Dorothy and Rose; brothers, Haywood, Archie, Willie, and Oscar.

“ My memory of brother Williams is I always called him Pops. He would make me laugh and treated me as if he known me for a long time. What will stay in my spirit is he passed on my children's birthday and will be buried on mine. He has such a beautiful wife that always made me laugh and kept me inspired. And had beautiful children and grandchildren. He has gone back to our Creator. He will be sorely missed. To the family the Bible says: To be absent from the body, to be present with the Lord.

I am the niece of Lester Williams. Haywood was my father. Uncle Lester lived with us for a short time when he was younger. When dad died there was 9 of us kids. Dad loved his brothers. We have tried to find uncle Ledter for years without success. I'm glad to know he had a great life. I remember him and how much fun he was. RIP my dearest uncle. I finally found you. Love you. Your niece Betty from Indianapolis, Indiana

“ As I have been saying, I will always remember you for your COOKING lol. Also how you could never get my name right calling me Brenda. I also remember you telling stories and always watching the news.

I will definitely be praying for your family as you watch over them. I know that you are in a place where there is no pain or sadness. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord". Really wish I could have made it to see you. You will truly be missed Say Hello to my brother for me. - Brittany
