“ I would like to take the time and say that I am sorry for your loss. The bible speaks of death as an enemy. Notice 1 Corinthians 15:26. It reads: "As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." This scripture helps us to appreciate that death is an enemy. The dictionary defines death as an adversary or an opponent. If you think about it. Death is an opponent that we by ourselves can never beat. But did you notice the last part of the scripture? It said that death was to be brought to nothing. How? Isaiah 25:8 gives the answer. It reads: "He (meaning Jehovah) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isn't that comforting to know that one day death will be a thing of the past. And the only tears will be tears of joy not tears of sorrow or pain. How do we know? Revelations 21:4 says:"And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." So you see tears will be a thing of the past in Jehovah's new world. I hope that this thought and these scriptures have been some sort of comfort to you in your time of deep sorrow.- your neighbor

“ *Dear Phipps Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of your loss. The “Hearer of prayer” promises to give holy spirit to those who sincerely ask for it at Psalms 65:2. Some find it extremely soothing to rely on prayer and friends through this most difficult transition, and perhaps this may aid in lifting some of your sorrow.(Phillipians4:6) Be assured,death will soon be “swallowed up forever” and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again.(Isaiah 25:8) My family and I wish you and yours peace.(Phillipians4:7)*
