“ Mr. Levin Livatt was one of the most beautiful people I have ever had an opportunity to know and support as a physician. I was the palliative care doctor who met him and his beautiful sister, Ms. Betty Henderson, during his last prolonged hospitalization. In spite of a rather grim future, he was a friend to everyone and brightened everyone else's life. I cannot imagine that there was a person who knew him who didn't love him. When he found himself with "lemons" as in the brief time he required placement at Heritage Manor, he truly "made lemonade." He was a very special person to everyone who knew him there. When he went home with Betty shortly before his death, he asked if I would still be his doctor and if I would come to see him. I responded that I didn't see how I could live without seeing him. My life was blessed by his presence and is deeply saddened by his loss. My heart and support goes to Betty and to the rest of those who loved him. He was a beautiful person through and through; a good man, a good son, a wonderful brother, a special friend and, I am sure, a terrific father. The world will miss him greatly.

“ Dear Livatt Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is tremendous, even with the passage of time. Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress according to Psalms 83:18, and Psalms 65:2. Please be assured, death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again, as promised at John 5:28.29 and Isaiah 25:8. My family and I wish you and yours peace.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible give us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible.
