“ Lenny & Gwen Hemphill

My heartfelt condolences go out to Sandra and the entire Beacoats family. I grew up in the St. John Street Community. My family lived on Alabama Street right across the street from the Beacoats family. Lewis was an Awesome person! As a matter of fact, he gave me and my brother and sister our first motorcycle ride when we were little children. He always looked out for us. He was our big brother. Thank you Mr. Lewis Beacoats for the many, many fond memories that I have of you and The St. John Street Community. Much love Big Brother, you will never be forgotten!!!

“ To Sonnie, children, grands, greats, and "entire " Becoats/Ward/Nichols family: Please "know" you have our love, sincere prayers and heartfelt sympathy, during this difficult season of your lives. We first met Lewis on Sept. 4, 2016, at Nicky & Lance's Engagement Celebration, where both families were getting acquainted. Since that time, it was "on!" He was so easy to talk to (and he loved to talk) and had a very welcoming spirit! We shall miss him. But now, he is healed and one day we'll all gather at that beautiful river, that flows by the throne of God. Until then family, "The Lord bless you and keep you...and give you peace."- Numbers 6:24-26 Charles & Willene Sumpter & Family

“ My condolences, sympathy, and prayers to his wife, Sandy, his children and grandchildren, the entire Becoats family and his many friends. We grew up as childhood thru adulthood friends. As young children we spent a lot of time at Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Sunday School, and other church activities. As seniors in high school we took trips together and he was always the center of attention. In adulthood he continued his walk with God never losing his faith. Macedonia has lost one of the Best Greeters. He was a lover of nice apparel starting when we were young kids he was always dressed for success. He enjoyed thrift shopping at high end stores. He also loved nice cars especially CORVETTES. I hadn't spoke to him in a few years but one of our last conversations was about his Dad and Grandfather, Deacon Jackson, and when they sang with the FOUR and TWENTY ELDERS group. He said he wished he could find the old reels that they recorded. I never got to find out if he found their recordings. Lewis you will be missed, your beautiful smile and your charm. Rest in heavenly peace my friend. Love you, Ricky.
