“ First allow me to extend my sympathy to the family.
When I came across Lewis's picture on this web-site, I said I know this man, but I couldn't figure out from where. It bothered me to the point I started calling relatives to see if they knew him-none did. I remember being in Lewis's prescence laughing and laughing and laughing. I had to look up my Uncle Willie's obituary, that's where I found Lewis's name. Willie was married to my God-mom Bonnie Junior. Lewis was the best man in their wedding in 1988. He was an unforgettable man, so I know if my being around him for a short period of time made him unforgettable to me everyone that knew him will never forget him. So may his memory bring comfort to Sandra and their children and all the other relatives and friends.
God Bless U All

“ Sandra and family,
So sorry to hear of the passing of Lewis. I will always cherish that salad he gave me the recipe for. I call it Lou's Salad. I remember him laughing when I told him that is what I named it. You all are in Everett and my prayers. Sorry I couldn't be there for his homegoing. I am a third grade teacher at Civic Park.
