Shepherd, Jr. was born December 28, 1942 in Kinston, North Carolina, the son of Helen Carter and Lewis Shepherd, Senior. Lewis resided in Flint, Michigan for most of his life. He believed in the Lord and attended church occasionally. Most of his time was spent with his grandson, Jibre and niece, Lynette, taking them riding, to the beach and out to eat. Lewis loved listening to gospel and blues music and was a great singer. He was a very well-loved man, father, and grandfather. Lewis had a good heart and would help you in any way he could. He was a very strong man, even through his illness he fought to the end. Lewis definitely was a living legend. He leaves to cherish his memory: daughter, Lethia Shepherd of Flint; son, Andre Brown of North Carolina; 2 stepchildren, Mable and Rosie Burgess; grandchildren, Jibre Gibson, Amari Baker, Azaria Brown, Tywon Burgess, Laquita Burgess, Delvi Burgess, all of Flint, Exinnay Brown and Justis Odom of North Carolina; great-grandchildren, Tashala Burgess and Tywon DeQuae Burgess; 4 sisters, Melva

Brewer of Des Moines, IA, Jacqueline Soleman of Greensboro, NC, Debra and JoAnn Carter; 4 brothers, Marshall Lee Carter, Marval Carter, Lynnell D. Carter and Bryant Carter, all of Flint; a host of nieces and nephews including special niece, Lynette Spears; aunt, Juanita Murrell; cousin, George Murrell; sister-in-law, Shirley (Greg) Adair; brother-in-law, Henry Soleman of Greensboro, NC; a host of other relatives and friends including special friends, Yolanda Ivory and Henrietta Brown. Mr. Shepherd was preceded in death by his grandson, Jomarion Gibson; parents, Helen Carter and Lewis Shepherd, Senior; sister, Vanessa Carter; brother, Michael Carter; and daughter's mother, Maple Jones. The family would like to express special thanks to Grand Blanc Rehabilitation Center.

“ Sorry to hear about the loss of your loved one. Death is an enemy that we can never get use to. In my times of sorry I have found comfort in John 5:28,29 which says that one day we will see our loved ones again.

Toi Humbert - February 21, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ *I am deeply sorry for your loss
You are in my heart
My thoughts and prayers are with you
You have my deepest sympathy*
