“ To the Kilgore Family. I extend my sympathy and prayers at this time of your painful loss. I loved and will miss my childhood friend who I talked to frequently on the phone these last few years. I don't know the words to make you feel better, however let God massage your hearts and comfort you all as only he can. Love, Junior.

Robert Tyler III - May 15, 2011 at 12:00 AM

“ Dear Family: Know that the Lord is always faithful and will give you peace and comfort -- that is our sincere prayer for you. God's blessings on you all. Mom Smith, Keith and Family, Steve and Family, and always, your brother and sister, Roy and Teri.

“ I remember seeing Linda at Meijer's when I was getting a script filled and I asked how she was doing. I hadn't seen her in almost thirty years. She told me she was still living in her mother's house. I guess when I seen her, she was sicker than I thought. May God Bless her and her family for her departure from us so soon. Love, Sharon Streeter.
