Linda Jean Luster was born February 1, 1958, in Tarry, Arkansas. The daughter of Norma Jean Luster-Henry and Henry Toles Jr. She moved to Flint, MI and became a resident of Genesee County in 1965. Linda was a graduate of Flint Central High School class of 1977. After high school, she attended Mott Community College where she received her associate degree in criminal justice. She was a member of Mt. Tabor Missionary Baptist Church for many years where she served on the usher board, pastor's aid committee and volunteered in the kitchen when needed.
