“ As I sit here at 4 in the morning contemplating the very experience of life, I am honest in my thoughts of remembrance for Linda Price-Nelson....

Linda and I grew up together. I am the oldest son of her oldest brother (Lewis) and we came up in an era when family was everything.

We did many things together and of them all, church (Williams Temple COGIC) was at the center of it all. I remember us all piling into my grandfather's old Buick and making our way to church every Sunday Morning, many Sunday evenings, Monday, Tuesday and what seemed like every other day in the week as well.

Unlike the rest of the Price family, I actually hated church and because of that, Linda and I didn't get along very well because she loved church and didn't have much tolerance for any of us who didn't. (smile)

But I'd like to take a moment to clear the air on one misconception about Linda. There are a lot of people who have grown to believe that she was evil and filled with hatred and bitterness. To think that means you really didn't know Linda. She was quite the contrary. I daresay I knew Linda better than most and trust me when I tell you that she was love personified and filled with the Holy Ghost.

Maybe Linda didn't live her life exactly according to the script some folk may have written for her, but she never strayed away from GOD and she never strayed away from family. Personally, because of our differences, I stayed away, but the truth is I was wrong. I was wrong because I knew better and I loved Linda like she was my sister.

I'll never get to tell her that now, but I wanted to just take this opportunity to share these thoughts with all of you in the hope that you would love each other and embrace family and church the way GOD intended. DO NOT MAKE THE MISTAKE I MADE and find yourself filled with regret and sorrow for missing the blessed opportunity to love those you know you love.

No one in the Price family will ever see me again, but it is my greatest wish that the passing of Linda brings healing, love and unity to this Mighty Family of GOD. I bow with humility and respect to Melvin as the official head of the family, and to Lois as the second elder. I pray that the rest of the family do likewise. Be ONE as you move forward, and may the blessings of GOD be upon you all.

“ I am sending love to the Nelson and Price family. Linda and I were childhood friends and grew up together at Williams Temple COGIC. My dad, Bro. Price and Bro. Bady took turns driving Linda, myself, Zealean and Yvonne to school sometimes. I will always remember Linda in my heart. Praying for the family. DENISE BUTLER

“ To the Nelson Family:

I was sorry to hear about the passing of your loved one. Death is liken to a thief that comes and takes away our love ones. Or due to old age and sickness we lose that precious quality of life that leads to death.

However, have you ever asked: Is death the end of it all? Or is there something else after death? The bible clears up any question we might have about death. It also shows that there is a real hope for persons who have faith.

*Yours truly,
Patricia*
