“ *Linda, I wish I could've held you and made the pain go away
But in my heart I knew you didn't want to stay
I wish I could've wiped away the tears you had to cry
The day you told Brenda her final goodbye
I wish I could've taken away all of your grief
Fulfilled the part of you that was incomplete
But you shared a bond most can't understand
Today you are back together, hand in hand
Still, I wish I could see your smile
Sit and talk with you for awhile
All the things, I just want to say
I'll whisper, in the prayers that I pray
What a light that was dimmed out way too soon
Life without you is like day without sun and night without moon
Even in your sadness you still shined bright
Linda, I can't say goodbye, so I'll just say goodnight.*

I love you

“ To the Walton Family:

I am deeply sadden by the loss of such a great person. I have known Linda all of my life--she was the one that helped my mother with raising me and my little sister, Neysey. She was more than just our babysitter--she, Brenda and Rita became like family. They were a package to us and have always been apart of our lives. I am grateful that I was blessed to have someone like her in my life and I got a chance to hug her and say I loved her last April before she departed our lives. She will be deeply missed but not forgotten. Our love for her wrongs deep and strong.

Linda, though I cannot be at your homecoming, know that I pray for you, think of you and will definitely miss you. We all love you.

Always
