“ To my beloved God-Brother Gene:

A great and compassionate God-brother all of my life. We are grateful to have shared traveling together for the past five years. Time spent together with you and Carol will always be remembered and cherished.

To my Kilgore Family: Comforting words to remember at this time come from the declared Word of our Lord. "To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. 2 Corinthians 5:8.

“ *Dear Kilgore Family and Friends,
I am so sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my sincere condolences. I too have lost several loved ones in death, and the pain is fresh, even with the passage of much time.
Thankfully, I have found relief in knowing that "The Most High God" is the "Hearer of Prayer", and a source of tremendous comfort in times of grief and distress. (Psalms83:18, Psalms65:2) Please be assured , death will soon be "swallowed up forever" and we will have the opportunity to see our dead loved ones again. (Isaiah 25:8)
My family and I wish you and yours peace. (Phillipians4:7)*
