“ To the family of Lola Robinson I send my deepest sorrow. Spiritual woman are hard to come by these days its good to feel that Lola was one. With that said she must have read her bible regularly and enjoyed verses like; Acts 24:15 which talks about the resurrection (or awakening) of our dear loved ones sleeping in death. Resurrected to a new cleaned earth to live forever on it like Psalms 37:9-11,29 tells us. Our God, Jehovah will use his son, Jesus to fulfill these promises and others. So rest assured you will see Lola again! Joyce

“ To the Robinson family, we send our love and prayers. We want you all to know that we love you all. We have been and will continue to pray for peace that surpasses ALL understanding. Think on how great it was to have a mother that was saved and loved her family; that is rare. We know that you guys have been through a lot, however, we also know from experience God will bring you through!!! Love you all.
