Mother Loretha Lattimore was called home to Heaven, Tuesday, April 24, 2018. Loretha was born May 2, 1922, in Alexandria, Louisiana, to the proud parents of Chester and Rena (Lee) Dorsey. Approaching young adulthood, she moved to Flint and married Lee A. Lattimore Sr. on March 2, 1941, in Napoleon, Ohio. A fulfilling and rewarding career followed at Hurley Hospital until her retirement in 1984. She brought happiness and joy to everyone!

Loretha was a devoted member of Pasadena Avenue Church of God. She worked faithfully as a Trustee, Member of the Mother's Board, Sunday School and HYPY. Possessing loving attributes, she heeded one of God's greatest commandments of "loving thy neighbor as thyself." She always had an open door to those in need, a seat at her dinner table, and room in her heart for anyone in need. Loretha enjoyed traveling and cooking; but loved working for the Lord and spending time with her family and friends. Her radiance of character, purity of heart, and excellent beauty shines in our eyes today and forevermore.

Mother Loretha Lattimore leaves to cherish her memories: daughter, Ernestine Lattimore, of Flint; sons, Lee (Rosemarie) Lattimore Jr of Grand Blanc, MI and David (Anita) Lattimore of Flint; sister, Vergie (Jerome) Stanford; sisters-in-law, Edna B Howard, both of Alexandria, LA and Deloris Howard of Flint; granddaughters, Rhonda Harrison, Joey Harrison, Devora Lattimore, Latoya (Demetrius) Hunter, Erica (Koreco) Moorner and Valencia (Frisco) Pullom; grandsons, Ja Ja (Shardra) Harrison and Lee Lattimore III; great-grandchildren, Tristan Harrison, Janae (Chris) Lewis, Ja Ja Harrison II, Julius Hunter, Dana Hunter and Dominic Hunter; a host of other relatives and friends including special nephew, Melvin Cotton; special niece, Ann Metcalfe; daughter-in-law, Teresa Lattimore; and son-in-law, Ronald Harrison

Loretha was preceded in death by her husband, Lee A Lattimore Sr.; daughter, Barbara Harrison; parents, Chester Dorsey, Prince and Rena Howard; sisters, Corrine Cotton, Dorothy Dennis, Thelma Dorsey and Letha Metcalfe; brothers, Chester Dorsey II, Bennie Dorsey, Jessie C Howard, Joseph Howard; and grandson, Marcus Thompson.

The family would like to express our appreciation and thanks to the staff at Loving Hands in Flint, MI and Regency Nursing Home of Grand Blanc, MI.

“ Aunt Lo has a heart of gold. We can remember going down south to Alexandria, LA for family events and funerals. Everyone from the Dorsey and Howard families treated me like family before I even married Doug during our 7 years of courtship. She was always smiling and Lee was our best man and sang at our wedding at Blackwell A.M.E. Zion Church. She even left her home on 766 E Austin St. so the men could have Doug's bachelor party at her home. She truly treated people kind and was an excellent nurse at Hurley training others the bedside manner necessary to be very successful in nursing. I know God had those golden gates wide open for her. No more pain and confusion. We are sure that she's with the Lord. We shall rejoice with her homegoing.

“ I remember Aunt Lo would come and get me and Pam and take us to church. One week they were having revival and you couldn't wear pants and that's all we had at the time, so we had to roll up our pants and we had on long coats. But I always remember all the fun times in Louisiana and Michigan that we all spent as a family. I remember always visiting her house In Michigan her drive way and fenced in yard. I love you Aunt Lo, im Thankful And Grateful for the memories. Love You Family 🙏❤️❤�
