“ Eshe,

May God continue to provide you strength and solace during this time.

Psalm 121

*1 I lift up my eyes to the hills?
where does my help come from?*

*2 My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.*

*3 He will not let your foot slip?
he who watches over you will not slumber;*

*4 indeed, he who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.*

*5 The LORD watches over you?
the LORD is your shade at your right hand;*

*6 the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.*

7 The LORD will keep you from all harm? he will watch over your life;

8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going both now and forevermore.

You and your family are in my Prayers.

You are in my heart cause you are part of my family and you know as family we stick together thru EVERYTHING. So if you need your Aunt, just call me.

God gives you strength thru the people he has places in your life, so if you get weak call on the Lord first and then lean on your family and friends.

I love you, my E!

May God continue to bless you and give you Strength in your time of need!

God Knows, God Can and God Will!

“ I've been at a loss for words ever since I heard the news. Mama Lottie was one of the sweetest souls that I have ever encountered in my life. The first and only time that we met, she made me feel as if she'd known and raised me my whole life. She made me feel the warmth of a mother's love with out saying a word. I will never forget her zeal for life and her appreciation for African American Art and history. I send strength and love to Eshe my "sister" and all those that were touched my Mama Lottie's glow.

“ As HE makes no mistakes, I rejoice with you in the life Ma Baker lived, the legacy she left behind, the lives she touched, and the amazing daughter she raised into a magnificent woman. I pray for your strength, your peace of mind, and your courage to press through such a trying time. Take joy in knowing that Ma Baker is dancing her royal dance in her gorgeous white robe, singing with the angels, and looking down on you for the rest of your life smiling.
Sincerely,
Kim Watkins
