“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ To the children of Mrs. Bell I send my condolences. As time passes your pain will cease but your memories will last. As a God-fearing woman, Mrs. Bell surely knew God's promise to resurrect her in the near future. (John 5:28,29) Yes, Jesus will be used by his Father, Jehovah to awaken her and others from sleeping in death. (Acts 24:15) Please read this verses in your bible and receive the comfort that only God's word can give.

“ Lottie was such a wonderful blessing to us. She worked with Tim and she would call him her professor of the Bible and she would always ask questions about the Bible. We would see her from time to time and no matter how her day was going ,she always had a smile! She will always be remembered for her beautiful smile and the beautiful person that she was inside...that 's because she loved her Lord & Savior. She invested in others and her family. We knew the love that she had for each & every one of you, you were all so special. Jesus says in the book of Phil.
. " To be absent from the body is to be present in the Lord". She is with Jesus and we know with joy we will see her again. May the family find comfort in Jesus for he is the only comforter. We will be praying for you.

“ To the family, I know your loss is deep and your sorrow is great, but I want you to know that I share in your sorrow, but more importantly, I recognize that this loss is Heaven's Gain. Jesus said, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest." Love you Phyllis.
