“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ I have many memories of times spent at Mrs. Brooks home. How she supported us as teenagers and young adults. Many conversations, counsel and good cooking. She was graceful and observant. She fought a good fight and I believe she was ready for her transition. May God strengthen you, comfort you, give you peace and "When thou liest down, thou shalt not be afraid, yea, thou shalt lie down and they sleep shall be sweet." Proverbs 3:24. God is ever present and he will be with you. Love you all. Deborah Hamilton
