“ Mrs. Rawls would always let us know when our sisters would be at her house so we could see them. She tried to ensure that we could have some type of relationship and was always kind to us. I will always remember her for the warm welcome she gave us with that beautiful smile each time we knocked at her door wanting to see our sisters and if they were not there she'd let us sit a while to see if they would show. During those times she'd talk to us and the stories she told us helped fill a void of not having them there. At the end of each visit she'd say “don't worry y'all things will get better” although things never did she never stop answering her door. The visit started to be more about seeing her and honestly we began to love her as our grandma. She tried to bridge a gap that should have never been set in place and I will be forever grateful to her for that. When I heard of her passing this was the first memory that crossed my mind and for who she was to me as a child is exactly why she will always be remembered by me and hold a place in my heart. With love K. Looney 🥹💯❤️

“ To the entire Rawls family sincere condolences are being sent. I met Louise many years ago in Ruston, Louisiana while staying in with her sister Melanie during my college days. And more recently we reconnected while she traveled with her niece, Margie Nell. I still remember that visit to Fort Wayne...got memorable photos. Even George splurged with grilled steaks and showed his hospitality. Oh the laughs we had. I will never forget her smile. To the family, I pray God will bring to mine your many family memories now and the days to come and bring you peace. Prayer of love and comfort to each of you.
