“ I only wish that i would have spent more time with her later on in life. However i have many memories from my childhood! Watching the soaps with her, hanging out with my Aunt at Genesse Valley mall until she got off work, my specialty made sandwiches with the crust cut off, and soo many more memories. It's never easy to say goodbye, we just have to trust that God made the best decision. Thanks everyone that has prayed for the strenght of my Mom, my Aunt and the whole family, you guys are truly appreciated. Bigmama and Grandad have finally reunited in Heaven.

Every memory keeps her alive. I know she wouldn't want us to worry ourselves over her passing, yet I find it hard to let go. Keep keeping her in your heart. Much love Bonk Bonk. RIP mommy

“ MOM...TRULY MISSING ALL THE MEMORIES THAT WE SHARED, WHEN YOU USED TO SCRATCH, WASH AND CUT MY HAIR; MISSING THE MOTHER AND DAUGHTER DRESSES WE WORE TOGETHER; MOST DEFINITELY MISSING YOUR FANTASTIC COOKING ABILITY AND ALL THE GOOD FOOD. I ESPECIALLY MISS, WHEN I WAS HAVING MY CHILDREN...I USED TO CALL AND ASK YOU ALL SORTS OF THINGS PERTAINING TO THEIR HEALTH AND WELL BEING. RIP MOM, LOVE YOU.

“ Truly enjoyed the days when Uncle Richard, Aunt Lucile and Sarita lived with us on North St.. Sarita was her first venture with motherhood. Ernestine arrived years after Richard's death and was the 2nd sparkle in her life. Her chocolate cakes and fried chicken were to die for. Also remember the book writing and the snuff. Genesee Valley kept her busy for many years and so did her grandchildren. A big hug for Sarita, Ernestine and Mattie Belle. I will definitely miss her presence, but the memories are strong. From:
