Mrs. Lula Mae Williams was born April 26, 1932, in Centerville, Mississippi, the daughter of the late Will and Bertha Mae Jefferson. Lula slipped away quietly from this earthly life on Wednesday, December 3, 2025, to be with the Lord at the tender age of 93 years young.

Lula Mae grew up in Centerville, MS where she graduated from Finch High School, relocating to Flint, Michigan with her sister, Miola Shook in 1953. She was employed at Woolworth for over 20 years before she gained employment with AC Delco/Spark Plug, a division of General Motors Corporation where she retired on May 1, 1994.

Lula Mae attended Bethel United Methodist Church for many many years. In her younger days she enjoyed looking good, getting her hair fried, dyed and laid to the side. She also enjoyed shopping, music, dancing, traveling, going to the casino, playing lottery numbers, watching the Detroit Tigers baseball games, going out to eat with friends and family, going to the UAW Local #651 meetings and spending money. Lula Mae matured years later by relaxing at home, talking on the phone, eating chocolate paradise ice cream, and catfish dinners on Friday's. Lula Girl loved spending her golden years at the Vet's Club and Golden Leaf with friends and family. Her favorite color was money green from clothes to her nails. Her favorite quotes were: she always said, "Baby keep you a job and have something for yourself!" and "I'm still standing!"

Mrs. Lula Mae Williams leaves to cherish her memory: 4 daughters, Lee Anna Coleman, Elaines Steel, both of Flint, Sherrie (Clarence) Eason of Portland, OR and Cherrie (James) Arnold of McPherson, KS; 24 grandchildren; 36 great-grandchildren; 4 great-great-grandchildren; 2 nieces, Verna Shook-Dunn and Jacqueline Shook-Dunn; 2 great-nieces, Bianca (Stevon) Swanigan and Miola Shook-Dunn; cousin, Dorothy Blackwell; a host of other relatives and friends including special friends, Mattie Andrews, Pearl Cabine, Derrick Stith, Tony Lyon and Demple Stith.

Mrs. Williams was preceded by her sons, Andrew Steel and Ernest Steel; daughter, Brenda Stith; sons-in-law, Ronald Stith and Kelvin Coleman; parents, Will and Bertha Mae Jefferson; brother, Charlie Jefferson; sister, Miola (JD Jr.) Shook; and nephews, Robert Dunn and Larry Dunn.

The family would like to express special thanks to Bethel United Methodist Church.
