“ We are so saddened by the loss of the family matriarch! Our families go back so far, even before I was born. My Mom always has stories about going out in the ministry with Sis. Williams, during their stay on Taylor Street. Sis. Johnson said Bro. Williams would babysit hers and his own, so Sis. Williams and she could work together in the ministry. Sis. Williams was a soldier, and she did not let anything come between her and her genuine love for Jehovah. We love you all. We know this death hurts, we have experienced it all too well! We empathize with you and are praying for your strength and endurance, during this difficult time.
