Lurlean was born November 14, 1919 in Bivins, Texas, the daughter of Martha Cole and Thomas Spratt. She was a dedicated member of St. Paul Baptist Church in Bivins, TX. Lurlean was employed as a Horticulturalist at Pinkard Plant Farm in Bivins for over 20 years. Everyone in Bivins called her "Sweetie" because she never turned anyone down and was sweet as pie; always soft spoken and never loud. Lurlean raised seven children all alone, never asked for help and her children never gave her any trouble. She welcomed everyone in her home and made them feel comfortable; as soon as one would come in she would say "Have a seat. Would you like something to eat? There's food back there help yourself." She loved to cook and never missed cooking a Sunday Dinner. Lurlean also enjoyed quilting, sewing and making her own clothing. She loved planting flowers outside as well as inside, with Ivy as her favorite inside plant. Lurlean was a teacher of the bible with common sense; always speaking positively. She was a strong woman. Lurlean Blacknold was one in a million; she taught her children to look for the best in everyone and to treat everyone with kindness and love.

Mrs. Lurlean "Sweetie" Blacknold leaves to cherish her memory: 5 daughters, Joann Jackson, Bobbie Lane, Betty Spearman and Zepha (Jimmy) Nelson, all of Flint and Martha Sanders of Bivins, TX; son, Andrew Blacknold Jr. of Flint; 17 grandchildren; 32 great-grandchildren; 8 great-great-grandchildren; brother, Oliver (Carol) Spratt of Brownwood, TX; special sister-in-law, Ruth Spratt of Texarkana, TX; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the Blacknold & Bobbie Lane Family my deepest condolences I send in this sad hour. To hear that your Mom passed away. Your Mom was a beautiful person inside and out. I loved her Sweet Potato Pies so much that anytime I asked her to cook me one she smiled & was glad to. I often asked about your Mom & today to see that God called her Home, my words can not express just how sad this made me. To all her children I pray that you will remember that your Mom had love for everybody & truly she has passed that on to her offsprings. Be thankful that what she instilled in each of you makes her live long in your Heart's and in your Spirit's. God Keep you all in His Loving Arms and strengthen you while you go through your grieving and Home going Celebration...
