“ I would like to send my condolences to the family. When someone we love dies, it's very painful. But the Bible talks about doing away with this pain at Rev21:4. May the God of comfort, comfort your family at this time.

“ Grandpa you will forever be missed. You have given us a mighty legacy to live up too. With the help from the Lord, we will heal and become even stronger as a family. Even though you are not here with us in the flesh you will always be here in spirit, watching and guiding us through our greatest endeavors. We were truly blessed to have had you in our lives for all these years. Love you always, GRANDPA.

“ I happened upon this notice and my heart goes out to the family of Mr Luther Coleman. Though I do not know the family I wanted to convey my sympathy and share with you the thought from the Bible that I look to at times such as these. Our heavenly Father Jehovah is a God of love and He hates to see us in pain. This thought is supported at Revelation 21:3,4 where it promises that God will do away with death and pain forever. What a time of celebration when we will be crying tears of joy instead of sorrow. I again want to express that I am sorry for your loss.

“ To the family: Mr. Coleman, was truly blessed with 'special mightiness' (Psalm 90:10). Yet, no matter how old our loved one live to be, it still devsatated us when they pass on. May you find comfort in the hope held out in the Scriptures, it come from a loving God. Who promises to destroy 'death forever' and reunite of with our loved one by means of a resurrection. (Revelation 21:3,4) My deepest sympathy to you.
