“ Lynda who I met in church. She is one of the most Authentic sister in Christ Jesus, and that is rare!! We were the kind of BFF that never called or visited one another. But was always concerned and asking connected family members about each other down through the years. Every blue moon when we did run into each other, she stayed the same. Meeting me with a smile, no matter who was around. The real conversations never changed. Condolences and prayers to the whole family. She surely going to be missed.
