“ Gone Too Soon is what I say about our Friend Mack. He still had a lot to do here. Many years ago when I lived in Flint we had many discussions and one of them was the hope of our resurrection back to life mentioned at John 5:28, 29 and Acts 24:15. He said "We'll See": Mack and I shared a beautiful granddaughter. His dogs didn't like me at all and Mack found that funny. I can still hear him laughing saying "Get Her, Get Her! They real hungry Mercedes, you better run!" I truly hope his wonderful family will find comfort in prayer and good memories about Mack. I Loved Mack Henderson and so did my family.

“Wassup Shooby?!” I used to always hear from him. I don't think I've ever heard him call me by my name, lol. I considered him my second Dad, I remember the many days seeing him and my Dad at the fence talking or he setting iced tea out in the sun or the watermelon eating contests. His love for dogs, me sometimes making sure to put his dogs back in their fence if they got loose because everyone else were afraid of them, lol. You watch me grow up into the lady that I am today...It was a shock to hear that you have graduated from this life, but now my Daddy can meet you at the fence again to shoot the breeze....I hope that he's showing you around up there. Thank you for being the person that you were and making such an everlasting impression in my life. Love you forever 'Uncle' Mac,
