Mae Hattie (Peacock) Battle was born February 11, 1918 in Dooly County, Unadilla, Georgia to the late Lucious Peacock and Hattie Davis Peacock. She was the 5th of 14 children. She was united in Holy Matrimony to Gerald C. Battle on August 1, 1948, to that union two daughters, Connette and Althea and one son Gerald C. Battle, Jr. were born. Mae Hattie attended Snow Elementary School in Dooly County, GA and 8th – 12th grade she attended Gillespie Training School (which was a boarding school) in Cordele, GA. While at Gillespie Training School she studied Nursing and upon graduation she began working as a Nurse. She worked at Gillespie Hospital in Cordele, GA and Americus Hospital in Americus, GA. Mae Hattie also worked in various homes as a Private Duty Nurse while in Georgia. In 1952, Gerald, Mae Hattie and their children moved to Flint, Michigan where he got a job in Buick and she worked at St. Joseph

Hospital. She transferred to Hurley Medical Center because they had better pay and better benefits, working in the Operating Room as an Operating Room Technician. She retired from Hurley Medical Center after 23 ½ years of dedicated service. While working at Hurley Medical Center she met Mrs. Josie Williams who witnessed to her about Jesus. Mae asked her more about church and Mrs. Josie invited her to Holbrook Avenue Church of God. She took her children to church and they all became active in church and shortly thereafter her husband followed, and everyone went to church together. Mae Hattie was faithful to church and taught the Junior Sunday School Class for nearly forty years and worked in various departments of the church. Most recently, Mae Hattie attended Living Word Church of God until her health failed. Mae Hattie leaves to cherish her memory: daughter, Althea (Supt. “ To Gerald and Val, my heartfelt condolences goes out to the entire Battle family. To me, Mrs. Battle was an earthly angel. When I worked in the O.R. at Hurley, I gratefully and respectfully accepted her wonderful words of wisdom. I enjoyed having many a lunch/dinner with her at Hurley. I felt as though I had an "auntie" at work, watching quietly over not only me, but the other staff. Doctors respected her, nurses and ORTs loved her, as I do. She was such a lovely and smart lady. I am thankful and privileged to have known her. You all are in my prayers. God Bless. Barb

“ Sis Battle was a special person I met as child at Holbrook COG. She always kind and very sweet. The last time I visited home and went to New Creation I seen Sis Battle. My heart was over joyed because I was seeing a childhood mother. I will miss her. To the family she was a truly a gem.

“ Even though we did not know your loved one personally, we are truly sorry to hear of your loss. Our condolences go out to you and your family. Often during difficult times people turn to the bible. Two scriptures that come to mind are Revelations 21:3,4 and Acts 24:15. I hope that these verses are comforting to you.

“ Althea, Jerry, Jason, Damon and Darrell I am so sorry for the loss of Aunt Mae Hattie. We loved her so much. I remember when I was living in Brunswick and she came to see us. I came home very ill that day and when I walked in my house she looked at me and said you don't feel well and she sent me to bed. She went into the kitchen made me some soup and I was well the next day. She always knew how to make everyone feel special. Please know we are praying for you and our thoughts are with you always.

We love you.

“ To the Battle Family,

May God bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time. I must say I have such fond memories of Sister Battle. I met her many years ago when our family attended Holbrook Church of God. She was a beautiful Christian and treated our family so wonderful. Of all of the memories that I have of Sister Battle, one stands taller than the rest, "Battle Cookies." I am sure that she is walking around Heave with those Battle Cookies. God Bless and keep you.
