Mrs. Mae Nell Jones was born August 21, 1947 in Hampton, Arkansas, the daughter of Flossie Mae (Ashley) Penigar and Hayward Johnson. Mae graduated from Vashon High School in St. Louis, MO. She then moved to Flint, MI, where she became a member of Mt. Zion Baptist Church. She later moved on to become a member of New Jerusalem Full Gospel Baptist Church where she also faithfully served on the Missionary Board. Shortly after moving to Flint, Mae met and married the love of her life & husband of 50 years, Isaac Jones. To this union, two children were born. Mae was such a loving wife, mom & homemaker. She was such a giving nurturer and took care of all of the family's children. Because of her love for children, she also worked many years at Brownell School of which Mae and Isaac were very competitive members of bowling teams acquiring many trophies. They also loved fishing and entertaining friends and family, often having barbeques and other social gatherings at their home. Mae's first love though, was cooking. It was said she could "burn in the kitchen" and cook an entire full spread by the age of nine.

Everyone far and near requested Mae's signature dressing among other of her noted prized dishes. Mae was a huge force in a small package and her beautiful spirit will live on forever.
