“ I have known Mae Ella Jordan all of my life. My family lived next door to her on Piper Avenue. My parents, Mae Ella and Henry Sr. would play cards on the weekends and of course my siblings and I would play with Phyllis and Henry Jr. I remember that she loved to dance! She was so smooth and cool doing the "camel walk". She would talk to us about growing up in her beloved Mississippi. She always stressed education and even went back to school herself for nursing. A lot of cold mornings in the winter, she would drive us to school...Thank you! She was natural, upbeat, optimistic and genuine. She did what she wanted to do...even buying a sports car (Camaro) in her forties! How cool is that? Most of all, Mae Ella Jordan was a WONDERFUL mother. She loved her children. I know that she thought of them as her greatest achievement. As I say goodbye, I'd like to thank you for all the beautiful memories.
