“ Maggie was one of the most beautiful people I have ever known. She was genuinely in love with Jesus and was not ashamed to proclaim Holy name!! She gave her life to the gospel and loved everyone. I am going to miss her deeply. I know she is in heaven with her Beloved Saviour and I pray that all who knew her and loved her will love the Lord just as she did. Be blessed and not depressed!!

“ I am so Proud & Happy to say that God Gave me the Opportunity to encounter one of his precious gifts in the earth. Her life and her walk with God Literally touch the lives of many, not only in Flint but across the country. She taught many of us that listned, how to have a sincere relationship with God and how to care for those in need. I am Proud to say that because of her walk with God it inspired me to live a Holy life pure before God. And although she and Well of Life Ministry is Gone. Her Legacy shall not die. As long as i live i shall declare " I am Blessed & Not Depressed!" Aunt Maggie although you have left me from the earthly realm i shall see you again we meet in Glory & we shall together crown him "KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS!" I Love you and you shall forever be my "WIND BENEATH MY WINGS" & I will not let you and God down! Deborah & Rudy during this Time of your great loss you all shall forever be in my prayers and thank you for sharing your mother with the world. She was your mother friend & comforter, but again thanks for allowing her to be a Rock to many! Follow in her Footsteps and keep looking unto God!
