“ I met Mother Malinda through her daughter Joann. She was truly a God fearing woman who lived her dash (from birth till departure) with elegance, class and above all else love. She made you feel at home in her presence. I shall never forget her song, "There's a storm put on the ocean and it's moving this Old way". Mother is safe from the storm. Rest well Mother Melinda. You have a new song. "I shall wear a crown"!

“ Weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. Psalm 30:5. We are saddened by the death of Mother Pittman, heaven has gained a angel. She shared her radiant smile and words of wisdom with everyone she met. Thanks for being that beacon of light which guided and instilled Christian virtues into so many lives. We will miss hearing you sing, “There’s a Storm Out On The Ocean”. Our prayers are with your family and the Macedonia Missionary Baptist Church, Saints of God, and Church of The Harvest International families as their Pastors all ministered to this awesome Woman of God.
