“ *Dear Johnson Family and Friends,
I am so very sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one, and offer you my sincere condolences. Many have found comfort and hope in knowing that the Bible assures us: “Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit.” (Psalm 34:18) God's holy spirit, or active force, can equip you with “power beyond what is normal” to go from one day to the next.(2 Corinthians 4:7) It is my sincere hope that this gives you a measure of solace in this most difficult time. My family wishes you and yours peace.*

“ To Ted and Family,

It's always difficult to lose a loved one in death. In prayer, over time it gets better. Mamie was a beautiful person with a great smile, listening ear and was a great cook. I'll really miss seeing Mamie during my trips back home.

I will pray for you.

Love,
