“ Some of my most entertaining childhood memories are of Mansfield and his wit from my days as his co-worker at Clio Rd.-McDonald's in Flint, MI. Momentarily, I am at a loss for words regarding his passing; he will be sorely missed. May his family find comfort from their memories of him and the outpouring of encouragements sent by those whose lives he touched. May Mansfield's soul rest in peace and may God grace us who remain with His tender mercies (Matt 5:4)! Tameka L. K. Holmes

“ I will miss Mansfield, first met Mansfield @ Flint Northwestern High School Band in 74, and we both played the saxophone, he played tenor sax, I played alto sax. Mansfield was a quiet deep thinker, who was respectful and kind to all that knew him. Rest in Peace my Brother!!! Condolences to Pat and Family. (Pastor Reggie Woolfolk and Family)

“ First, my condolences to the family of Mr. White, the lose of a love one can not be explain nor put into words. At times we feel lost, no comfort no matter how much of it we get. People say that we can gain comfort by reading and reading the bible can bring absolute comfort, one thought and expression (Rev.21:3,4). May peace be with the family.
