“ To the Skinner Family,

A dedicated, committed christian soldier stayed on the battlefield for the Lord. Sis. Skinner was a loving mother, sister, aunt and to many a woman that truly loved the Lord.

Her commitment serving as a Usher, doing the prayer room schedule, and always having a kind word to say with a smile will surely be missed. The last words she spoke to me was "It's been a Journey" now she is in heaven a final stop of complete healing, peace and rest.

Again, let me say to the family, just know and be sure that Sis. Skinner your (mother, aunt, sister) has a beautiful smile looking down upon us as she stands at the gate Ushering those in and extending her arm to have a seat.

Keeping you in much prayer.

“ I was overcome with sadness on hearing of Maple's passing; I am sure she would want me to call it a "passing over or transition". Although I would not see her on a regular basis I would always see her when I visited Grace Emmanuel. It will be difficult to return and not see her somewhere in the building on Sundays. I would always make it a point to talk with her before leaving church, because I knew she was going to tell me something positive that I could apply to my life; just every day living. I know the family misses her presence but at the same time I know and believe she is rejoicing in the presence of GOD. Maple was a truly God-filled vessel and I was blessed to have been touched by her earthly presence. Your family has been in my prayers and will continue to be. May God Bless you with his love that passes all understanding and give you peace.

“ Mom, what can I say. I've learned so much from you. Never wear a scarf out of the house. Always always put your makeup on before you leave the house. Keep yourself smelling good by putting lotion on with your perfume. Wear your faith as a garment. Trust God always.

I spent so many years with you and have spent the time with you and I love you. I am so glad that you can breathe now, and can sleep and hopefully eat garlic.

I will see you again.

I love you mom, you've taught me so much.

“ Aunt Maple

you were such a blessing yo our family. You always had that beautiful smile,a kind word, and encouragement for each one of us. God has taken an angel home to be with him. You have left a legacy of how to be a true woman of God. I have watched you all of my life,and jave never seen, heard, or witness you say or do anything that would bring harm to anyone. Your light did shine. I could see that your were walking with the Lord in your life. What is the saying? It is not what you say, It's what you do. I have witnessed a child of the King. Eliza taught us how to be strong women and how to take care of your family. Colonel taught us ho to live a life of integrity and to love your family. Your legacy is how to live a christian life. I didn't miss hte message. Until we meet again. I love you. Rennie
