“ Marc,

You have always been a really good friend, even when time and distance made it hard to keep in touch. I will cherish every memory that I have of the time we shared together. You meant more to me than you will ever know. Just know that I love you and will see you again.

“ Marc when you get this message in heaven. I know for sure you will have something smart to say or you may say gurl you soooooo sweet! I thought we had won this battle for sure. I can remember the many times we spoke on the phone through out this process. I remember you saying that I know you and everybody else may not want me to leave this soon. But if it is God's will then I will have to let his will be done. I knew when you said that I can remember driving on my way home in Atlanta in traffic. Something came over me and I said lord he is tired of suffering. Truly it hurts that you are gone but I still have our old pictures and my wedding video to see Big Poo's famous smile. I feel truly blessed to have been in your company while you were on your journey to heaven. I will never forget you! Love Always Quita

“ My Family and I would like to express our deepest sympathy for your Family's lost of your loved one. Death is not natural. That is not the way it was suppose to be. In the Bible book of Genesis , Life was suppose to go on forever. Chapter 3 Verse 15 shows how God would fix it. Then in Ecclesiastes chapter 9 verses 5,6,10. tell us the condition of the dead. Your loved one is not in pain anymore. Revelation chapter 21 verses 1-5 tell us that death will soon be done away with, along will pain and all sorrows . These scriptures and others has helped me and my Family cope with death. I hope they help your Family too.

“ i'd first like to send LOVE to Marc's ENTIRE Family!

my heart is achng, but i KNOW tht theirs is more! Marc/i grew up on the same street in Beecher. i livd on the corner/we both went to City of Flint schools so we didnt hang in our neighborhood much. we met through his beautiful Mama, Rose who did my hair once as a child/whenever i would walk down the street he would always suddenly appear, smiles/we'd chat f hrs. i left home @ 13/hadnt seen Marc since he visitd me in GA sumtime in the late 90's. i just joind FB last week/was acceptd as a Friend, but never had the chance to chat w/ him. i didnt even know he was ill or anythng. i shockngly/painfully learn'd the news scrolling down his Wall on 12-15-09. i am in shock, but i just wnt to let the Fam know tht although i havnt seen them in yrs i WILL KEEP them coverd in Prayer/will stop by to visit the next time im home! i cant believe tht my Dear friend will be buried on my Birthday. we livd SO cls on the same street to where we could literally stand in our own yards/see each other so clearly. wow.

MUCH LOVE.

“ Every memory I have of Marc is filled with laughter and his smile. The greatest memory I have of him is the smile he had on his wedding day. I don't think I have ever seen a smile that pure and genuine. To Marquette, Malcolm, Marc III, Maria, Big Marc, Codi and Big Rose I know no words that can offer the type of condolences I wish to offer so instead I offer my prayers. Praying for and with you all. May God's grace and mercy keep you this and every day.
